COLLEGE SONG

We raise our voices; let them swell
In a chorus loud and strong;
The rolling hills send back the sound
Of our triumphant song.
For in one great unbroken band
With loyal hearts, and true
Your daughters stand, and hand in hand
Sing, college, dear, to you.

Our college days run swiftly by,
And all too soon we part;
But in the years that are to come,
Deep graven on each heart.
Our motto, "Service," will remain,
And service we will do.
And as we serve our hearts will turn,
O college dear, to you.

Dear Alma Mater, strong and great,
We never shall forget
The gratitude we owe to you —
A never-ending debt;
All honor to your name we give
And love we pledge anew,
Unfailing loyalty we bring,
O college dear, to you.

THE ELEGANCE AND THE BEAUTY OF ELLIOTT HALL
ON A MISTY TUESDAY NIGHT.

210401

Around the Campus . . .

THE QUAD

The entrance to our campus as around the quad you go

ELLIOTT HALL

Elegance, beauty — dreamy dances; twinkling Christmas tree lights; art exhibits: a varied assortment constituting the center of sorial life at Woman's College.

LIBRARY

Dignity of structure; enumerable sources of knowledge; scene of countless hours of studying; the intellectual center of Woman's College.

SODA SHOP

Smoke filled air; casual conversations; a hurried snack; a between-class stopover; the scene of the "get together" at Woman's College.

. . . Day by Day

ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

The dire need for the ID card when cashing a check; the happy (?) visits to the Class Chairman's, the Registrar's, and the Dean's offices; the center of the ruling body at Woman's College.

HOME ECONOMICS

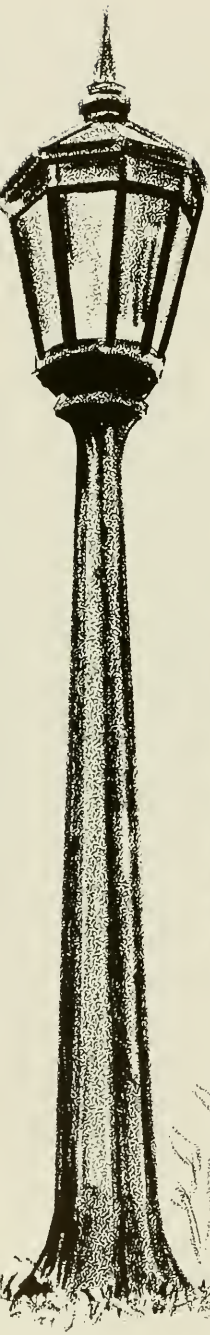
The horrors of pattern construction, sophomore introduction to Chaucer. The many cooking labs with burned fingers.

SCIENCE BUILDING

The dread of freshman biology; those countless lab hours for science majors; the long trek to the Physics Lecture Room movies: basically, the center of scientific knowledge at Woman's College.

FORNEY

The click of typewriters: the weariness of machines lab: the puzzling problem of numbers, facts, and figures; the budding of efficiency: the center of business education at Woman's College.



AYCOCK

Migration to mass meeting; the spectacular of staged productions; the inspiration of lectures and forums; Saturday night movies; the center of special presentations at Woman's College.

INFIRMARY

The restful atmosphere; the ever-present thermometer; the necessity for one's medical record; the never-ending pills; the present home of nursing education; the health center at Woman's College.

As we Remember—

McIVER STATUE

The magnitude of his wisdom; the foresight of his judgment; his guiding principles, the hasis for past progress; his high ideals, the inspiration for future achievements.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION BUILDING

The variety of every sport and dance; the energetic instructor; the hectic race from the Science Building to Coleman; the hard-working PE majors; the center of physical education at Woman's College.

PEABODY

The long walks; the biology excursions; the beauty of the springtime; winter wonderland; the center of rustic surroundings at Woman's College.

Our Woman's

MAIL BOX

The daily dash to catch the mailman; the necessity of writing letters before one receives them: the center of the biggest traffic problem at Woman's College.

GOLF COURSE

The rolling hills; the beauty of the sunset; the enthusiasm of the golfer: a center of outdoor recreation at Woman's College.

CORNER

The patient proprietor; the diligent searches; the leisurely coffee breaks; the mad dashes across the street; the metropolis of Woman's College shoppers.

College

DEDICATION

Our Chancellor's welcoming smile is complemented by his embroidered handkerchief "I Like Girls"

To Gordon W. Blackwell, our Chancellor, we proudly dedicate the 1959 edition of Pine Needles. Since July 1, 1957, when he became our Chancellor, we have confidently relied upon him for capable leadership and guidance. The school could have no better friend or more loyal supporter than Dr. Blackwell. His greatest wish is for growth and improvement in the college, and he works diligently toward those ends.

The white handkerchief in Dr. Blackwell's coat pocket, which he invites the students to see, says "I Like Girls," and any girl who goes close enough to read that message and says a word to the Chancellor can say honestly, "I like Chancellor Blackwell." We do like him; we respect and admire him, and we are extremely proud to say that we have him to lead and direct our college.

The hustle and excitement as Millie and Blair help their father into his robe for his inauguration as our chancellor.

SENIOR CLASS SONG

To W. C. our song we raise,

A loyal melody of praise,

We stand together bound in love,

Seeking guidance from above.

We pledge ourselves in word and deed,

To always help where we see need,

And we will leave behind each day,

A light to guide another's way.

Oh, we are the girls in red and white,

And we'll stand bold on any sight,

Our fame will live throughout all time,

For we are the class of '59.

SENIOR HOUSE PRESIDENTS AND

The upperclassman house requires less individual guidance and attention than the freshman houses, but the president and counselors of these dormitories have a great responsibility that they perform lovingly and diligently. They must direct, instruct, and reprimand. They are the Chiefs of the tribes who must show by their leadership the manner in which a citizen should conduct herself in a college or a world community.

JUNIOR CLASS SONG

W. C., we sing to thee,
Loud our voices raise.
Sixty brings her loyalty,
Her honor and her praise.
Charcoal gray and white we wear.
Our colors proud we show.
Our motto we will e'er uphold
As on through life we go.

Proudly now the story tell
Let our song resound.
Knowledge, love, and fellowship
Through college life we've found.
Spreading peace and brotherhood,
Encircling all the earth.
The Class of Sixty marches on
To prove her matchless worth.

Come on along, girls, stand up and shout!
Wake all the people and tell them about
Our class, the one that leads all the rest!
That's Sixty! The class that is the best!

SOPHOMORE CLASS SONG

The tide of all our lives it seems,
Has surged us to our golden dreams.
N'er to look behind an hour,
To wait in meekness, walk in power,
To wait in meekness, walk in power,
To hold our faces toward the sky,
And walk with God until we die.

SO,

Now as we begin anew,
We know our college days are few,
So here's the class of '61,
To carry on the work begun,
With scholarship and loyalty,
We'll stand in hand with W. C.

So we'll sing —

Blue and white, the class of '61!
Here we are in fellowship and fun,
We'll be true to you our college friends,
Yes, to you, we'll be true, always —

So —

Blue and white, the class of '61!
Here we are in fellowship and fun,
We'll be true to you our college friends,
Yes, to you, we'll be true, W. C.

FRESHMAN CLASS SONG

Above the pines our song drifts out,
Our voices strong and true;
The earth's far corners hear our shout,
Oh, W. C. to you.

Our days are swift; our moments dear;
Our friendships grow and bloom;
We plan our lives without a fear,
Futures without gloom.

Four years we learn beneath your hand;
Our spirits rise and soar.
When we depart we'll take our stand
Singing evermore:

Chorus:
We're Freshmen now at W. C.,
The Class of Sixty-two.
Our green and white, our faces bright,
Will lead us bravely through.

THE NURSING EDUCATION SCHOOL

The Department of Nursing Education at Woman's College began in February, 1957. It is a co-operative agreement and action between the college and Cone Hospital, which first gave a grant of $100,000 and later added $20,000 to begin and aid in the operation of educating nursing students. The Department purposes to prepare young women for graduate registered nurse duties in staff or general duty positions. It is patterned somewhat after the eight Pilot Schools begun in 1952 under the guidance of the National Research Project in Columbia University.

The first class was registered in September, 1957. The girls wear an attractive blue uniform with a white cap, shoes and hose in the clinical laboratory area, and have blue jackets with an insignia of their own design which distinguishes them as W. C. students. Indeed, they are full-fledged W. C. students during their two years here.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

"I hereby pledge to every citizen of this community to use all my powers of head, heart, and hand to strengthen and uphold the principles of the honor policy and the ideals of Student Government, which are individual responsibility, loyalty, and honor."

The Student Government Association is the organization which permits the students to govern themselves, and depends for its success upon the interest, participation, and responsibility of every member of the college community. Through this organization we at Woman's College prepare for the democratic way of life which is our country's greatest asset.

EXECUTIVE BOARD

The Executive Cabinet is composed of all the girls who hold elective offices on the campus. The Cabinet brings these officers together in order to co-ordinate their efforts to represent and serve the student body.

The Cabinet, headed by Peggy Duncan, the President of the Student Government Association, meets regularly to discuss various problems and topics pertinent to the college as a whole. It also acts as host to distinguished visitors on our campus.

TERRY GARRISON
Judicial Board Chairman

JUDICIAL BOARD

Judicial Board, the branch of student government which handles all major offenses, is composed of a chairman and eight associate members, which includes five seniors, two juniors, and one sophomore.

Judicial Board offers firm justice tempered with sympathetic understanding, and strives to create in the Woman's College student an awareness of the importance of responsible freedom.

HONOR BOARD

The general purpose of the Honor Board, which is to perpetuate the honor policy, is fulfilled each year as the members of the board introduce the policy to new students and remind upperclassmen of its ideals.

NATIONAL STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The NSA Council functions as the connecting link between the Woman's College SGA and the regional and national organizations of NSA. By meeting with these various regional and national groups, our local division of NSA shares and gains ideas that are beneficial to student government.

LEGISLATURE

"The Legislature shall have the power to make all rules and regulations which shall be necessary and proper for the government and for the best interest of the Student Government Association and all subdivisions thereof."

Legislature is the medium through which the students assume responsibility of self-government. Representatives from each residence hall voice student opinion and make decisions according to the wishes of the majority.

ELLIOTT HALL

MARY SMITH (JAYE P.) WOLFE
President of Elliott Hall

Our beautiful Elliott Hall was built to fulfill the growing need for a place on campus where the social life of the college could be integrated. Indeed it is the social center where students may enjoy television, coffee hours, dances, parties, faculty-student teas, and the large record collection. Publications offices are situated in this building of many activities, also.

The Elliott Hall Council is a representative body elected by the students to govern Elliott Hall. Under the direction of the council a well-balanced and varied social program that is intended to meet the individual needs of every girl on campus is planned.

TOWN

D. ANN HANNA
President

A car to drive, home-cooked meals, a soft bed and her own quiet room — these are mild but nevertheless real pleasures which the Town Student never has to give up. These fortunate girls can pursue higher education while enjoying the comforts of home.

Headquarters for Town Students is their very own lounge in Elliott Hall, a comfortable place for a few hands of bridge or a moment's relaxation between classes. These students have their own officers and representatives to legislature, and by their enthusiastic participation in all college activities have proved themselves an important part of campus life.

SERVICE

The Service League aims to serve students on our campus and to help those less fortunate in this and other countries.

Each year the league conducts a "drive to end all drives," the Campus Purse Drive. Special events are planned during this drive to raise money in addition to contributions of the students and the faculty.

Various other drives and campaigns are conducted during the year to satisfy the needs of the campus such as a clothing drive, the Bloodmobile in co-operation with the American Red Cross, a Campus Clean-Up Campaign, and the book exchange.

The league encourages the individual of the college community to strive through an educational process to become a responsible and conscientious citizen.

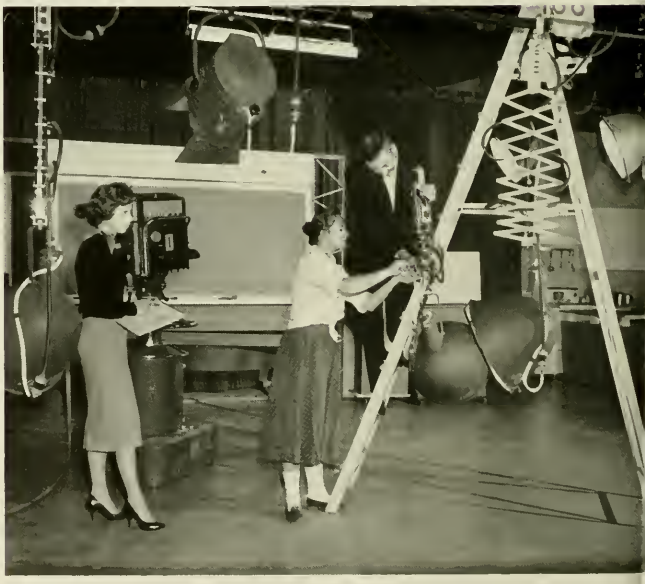
There is much "behind the scenes" work in preparation for a telecast



U N C - T V

WUNC-TV, now an integral part of North Carolina's television network, joins stations in Chapel Hill and Raleigh to telecast a variety of programs. The station is directed by Bill Young, who has a permanent staff of five, plus a number of interested students.

This year Channel 4 has completed two years of In-School television made possible by a grant from the fund for adult education. The afternoon programs, directed toward elementary and high schools, provide music education and aid the students in choosing careers. Evening programs include dramatic presentations such as "Illusion," a woman's program entitled "Potpourri," credit courses, and a special series for deaf viewers using sign language.

Mass confusion reigns paramount on Thursday nights—make-up nights —in the Carolinian office. The first problem faced by the haggard staff is the frantic search for rulers that belong to the Carolinian, but which have been misplaced by light-fingered measurers. Another problem is the new camera that doesn't work. The first two pictures taken on each role of film never turn out. Much sleep and gallons of coffee disappear as the staff works to meet its deadline.

On the following Wednesday, the faculty is made aware of the fact that the Carolinian has come when they lecture at a class that is busy reading the campus news.

GREENSBORO, N. C. DECEMBER 17

It's About Christmas . . .

Yes, Christmas is really the air feels good, doesn't it? It's nice to hear Johnny Mathis singing "Oh, Holy Night," and to have a shar in decorating the dorm. And there's even snow which always help And it's that time of year, it's a real warm feeling.

The air is full of it, in fact, that other things are almost stifl and forgotten. Almost. Things like bomb scares, and who gets the fi monkey to the moon, and bloodshed in Algiers, and other people's hu ger and cold and misery. And closer things like daily deception cruelty and worry over whether or not we're dead. And of course one really thinks we are and, of course, no one really cares whethe not we are because the important thing is "that how had no right to it." But then having rights and not having rights is not so importa it? We'll not as long as you don't think about it, anyway, and not as as it's Christmas and you've got the Christmas spirit.

It's a brave spirit, the Christmas Spirit, but not a very strong We sing "Peace on Earth, Good Will to Men," and some of us singing it makes it so, and to some of us it is so, if only for a mo And it's wonderful. So wonderful that it looks as though we'd h to it.

But, we can't because it's a spirit of Christmas, a spirit of not strong enough, it seems, to really live. That kind of spirit is take it in the world in which we live. It just isn't practical. It is safe.

It's only beautiful, it's only true. And that just isn't enc

And some of us read Yeats and wonder with him, "wh beast, its hour come round at last, slouches towards Bethlehe born?"

And we wonder just what Christ has to do with Christ way, with things the way they are. Isn't Xmas now more cor the symbol we worship really a beast better named X. Is th birth in Bethlehem, a horrible beastly new birth?

But no. The realists in us knows that the symbols are they have not changed. It is the birth of Christ we celebrate is to some, and to some, it is meaningful. And maybe thin worse, but it's just our youth. It's always been the same. T are not different; it's just that the people are no different we, the people, are proud of our brave exercise of our free what we believe and we can forget our inability to do.

And we can see the beauty of the Christmas spirit and feel it warmly. And we can even sincerely believe in peace honestly think there is good will toward all men. Some of ing ourselves that it exists and some of us sincerely believe we it by wanting it. The trouble, even with the most sincer only temporary.

Perhaps we should say Merry Christmas, but we'll all Christmas to some degree. We only wish it could be more But, even if it is, it won't make too much difference the get back.

That's the way it is with the beautiful and the tru work in real, everyday life, will they? We know they w we're foolish enough, childish enough, to wonder.

THEATRE

The Woman's College Theatre, under the direction of Mr. Herman Middleton, has four types of productions which include the Major Productions, the Television Productions, the Experimental Lab Plays, and the Children's Plays.

The theatre productions this year have included The King and I, Stage Door, The Good Woman of Setzuan, and a World Premiere. The Television series is called the Hour of Thespis and is presented for a half hour every four weeks over WUNC-TV. The Children's Play this year was King Midas and the Golden Touch which toured the state in May.

All the students are invited to try out for the plays and work on the various crews. The Major Productions incorporate several other departments such as the Department of Music and Physical Education.

Woman's College students, faculty, and Greensboro citizens gather in the lobby of Aycock Auditorium before one of the theater productions.

LECTURE

Robert Milli and Delores Viola are the romantic interest, Orsino and Olivia in the Players Incorporated production of Shakespeare's comedy classic, Twelfth Night, March 10, 1959.

The Woman's College Lecture-Entertainment Series has presented four outstanding programs this season.

The delightful adaptation of Voltaire's "Candide" on October 15 filled Aycock with enthusiastic applause and laughter. In his search for good in the world Candide and his friends found, at least, an appreciative audience on this campus.

On November 20 the widely known "Little Singers of Paris" charmed a Woman's College audience with the beautiful music of their child voices. It was the boys' second visit to the campus in the last four years.

The Players Incorporated presented, on March 10, a hilarious production of Shakespeare's Twelfth Night. The cast was an excellent one that caught the audience up and held it, shrieking with laughter, throughout the entire play.

Oedipus Rex, a Greek drama by Sophocles was presented by the Players Incorporated on March 11. This adaptation of the tragedy of King Oedipus was an adroit and effective one.

Players Incorporated presented Robert Milli in the title role of the anguished ruler in Sophocles' Oedipus Rex, March 11, 1959.

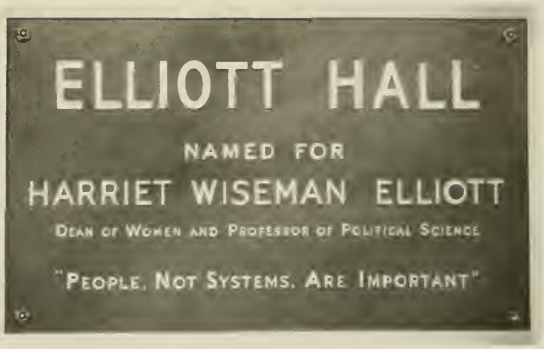
SCIENCE FORUM



"The Challenge to American Higher Education Today" provided the topic for the twelfth annual Harriet Elliott Social Science Forum. A committee of faculty and students joined together with leaders in education to stimulate interest in the present and future educational programs.

Arthur Bestor, George Sylvester Counts, Arthur Larson, and Harrison Evans Salisbury analyzed the main topics of education during forums and informal discussions.

Administration And Faculty

YOUR PRESIDENT

President William Friday's leadership and planning have been a great factor in making the Woman's College feel a more integral part of the Consolidated University. His work is full of devotion, wisdom, understanding, and co-operation. Woman's College is proud to be a part of the University under the direction of such a man as he.

YOUR GOVERNOR

The Woman's College students are ever conscious and appreciative of the guidance Luther Hodges has provided in the development of our school since he has been Governor of our State. His wish is for an educational system that will train leaders as well as provide a good academic program for students. His wisdom and devotion have contributed much to the educational advancement which has been a direct benefit to our college.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

YOUR CHANCELLOR

We are proud to have Dr. Gordon W. Blackwell as our Chancellor for the second year. He holds a place of deep respect and profound admiration in our thoughts. Chancellor Blackwell is a graduate of Furman University and received his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees from Harvard. He has been with the University of North Carolina since 1941 as Kenan Professor of Sociology and Director of the Institute of Research in Social Science.

KATHERINE TAYLOR

Dean Katherine Taylor is the student's and the campus' understanding friend and leader. She was formerly a member of the Woman's College faculty and she has a valuable knowledge of college affairs and the college student. As Dean, she has been a golden link between the student body and the administration on our campus. No problem is too large nor too small for Dean Taylor, and her warm greeting and bright smile invite students to share both the bad and the good with her.

MEREB MOSSMAN

Mereb Mossman, our Dean of Instruction, is responsible for organizing teaching and learning on the campus. Her valuable experience in the field of sociology and her knowledge and understanding of people make her a valuable asset to our college community. She was born in Kansas and educated at Morningside College in Iowa and at the University of Chicago.
